NEWS LETTER FROM STATE DEPARTMENTS

COLUMBUS.—The probability of a significant increase in the normal $30,000,000 annual limestone and stone industry in western Ohio as the result of findings made by the state division of geological survey was predicted by State Geologist Wilbur Stout. "We have found, after a two-year investigation, that the western Ohio section contains a huge quantity of limestones and stone of remarkable purity," Geologist Stout reported. "Many of the limestones and stone, for which there are more than 200 uses, are from ninety-eight to ninety-nine and a fraction per cent pure. They are by far the best discovered anywhere in the world, and when our findings are officially published and released it is logical to believe that the industry, which normally has a $30,000,000 output, will be greatly expanded." The most important uses for limestones and stone are in road construction, building and chemical fields, Mr. Stout said.

The Yuletide season in fact as well as in spirit arrived at the State House this week. Two giant mail boxes, twelve feet in height, were erected in the State House yard for Columbus and visiting children from out of town to mail their letters to Santa Claus. In addition, a massive Christmas tree was placed in front of the main entrance to the Capitol building, and myriad-colored lights were strung along the entrance and all around the Capitol dome. "In the rounds a smaller evergreen was located, and near it Santa Claus will preside and present stick candy to all youthful guests. The mail boxes, one for boys and the other for girls, are reached by steps. They each bear the inscription: 'Uncle Santa's Mail.' State Superintendent of Executive Buildings J. L. Kennedy, who has charge of the State House, issued a special invitation to out-of-town children to visit the Capitol and grounds.

Many child delinquency cases are the result of improper homes in which the child is unable to correct, and which are not generally known until police or court action is taken. This was the assertion made by Dr. C. H. Callahan, executive psychologist in charge of the state bureau of juvenile research, in an address at the annual conference of the Ohio Probation association. He advocated closer co-ordination between state and county officials, schools and courts as a means of curbing juvenile delinquency. "Citizens in general, too, could cooperate in such a way that we will be enabled to take corrective steps before children are brought into court," Dr. Callahan added.

Dates for the third annual Buckeye Boys' State, under auspices of the Ohio department, American Legion, and conducted at the Ohio State fair grounds, were set for June 18 to 28 at a conference of Legion post commanders in Columbus last week. The project, which was enthusiastically supported by National Legion Commander Daniel Doherty, will offer leading high school civics students practice in "running their own state government" for ten days. State officials and departments co-operate in the movement. The boys will elect their own state officers, starting with the governor, who will appoint his cabinet. There will be legislative, and state departments will be created. "The Legion is preventing the collapse of democracy through various projects such as this," National Commander Doherty told the Ohio post commanders. "They are designed to educate the rising generation in the full blessings and benefits under our form of government."

Dr. Perry P. Deane of the department of sociology, Ohio State university, announced that the institute for social living, which was conducted on the campus during the fall quarter as a "preparation for marriage," will be repeated by popular request during the winter quarter. The class will be limited to fifty members.

Ruby Rogan, a misor, who was married to Loren W. Rogan on March 14, 1935, divorced him May 3, 1937, and re-married him less than a month later, has now instituted a second divorce action in common pleas court. The petition, filed through her mother, Josephine Mercer, charges gross neglect of duty, asserting the defendant had never provided his wife with a decent home, and with non-support. The plaintiff seeks custody of a minor child, testimony, attorney fees and court costs.

Zeva Marchant, in a divorce action filed against Fred W. Marchant, charges the defendant with cruelty and habitual drunkenness. EDNA T. FOLEY FOUND BURNED IN SCIO HOME

Mrs. Edna O. Tarbox Foley, died at her home in Scio, O., Tuesday, Dec. 7, an untimely death due to severe burns on the body and from exposure.

On Thursday, Dec. 2nd, a salesman, well known to Mrs. Foley called at her home but failed to get an answer. Neighbors had not seen her for several days and an investigation was started by Mrs. Clyde English, who later notified the authorities.

A ladder was secured and entry to the house was made through a window on the second floor. Mrs. Foley was found lying in front of an open fire grate, severely burned but still conscious. It was the opinion of physicians that she had suffered a stroke and had fallen near the open fire place when her clothing caught fire. Surroundings indicated that she had extinguished the fire in her clothing by smothering the flames with her hands as they and the arms were badly burned as well as other parts of her body.

Neighbors think she had laid in a helpless condition from some time Thursday until Monday. She was conscious when found and taken to a hospital in Dennison, O. According to the hospital authorities she died from infection of the burns and from exposure.

Mrs. Foley was born near Cedarville, the daughter of Samuel and Ruth Tarbox, on November 21, 1863. She was educated in the county and local schools. When a young girl Mrs. Foley became a type compositor on the Xenia Gazette and in those days walked seven miles to the county seat to "stick" her two galleyes of type for the day's work and then walk back home. Later she was employed as a compositor on this paper, resigning her place in Xenia.

After resigning her place in this office under the present ownership, Mrs. Foley was married to John C. Foley. In 1911 they located in Scio where they purchased the Scio Herald. Mrs. Foley died in 1917 and the editorship and management was taken over by Mr. Foley, who published the paper until a fire consumed the plant in 1921 with a total loss.

Mrs. Foley was a member of the Typographical Union and received a monthly pension. She is survived by one son, Theodore Foley, now located in Capertina, Calif., and a brother, Harry Tarbox, Findley, O. Her daughter, Ruth, died in Scio in 1933.

Funeral services were held last Thursday, with interment in Grandview cemetery, near Scio.

Dog Licenses Go On Sale In Greene County

Dog licenses for 1938 will remain the same as in 1937, according to a scale of prices adopted by Greene county commissioners.

Commissioners had hoped to decrease the prices for next year, but a mounting total of sheep claims in 1937 depleted the dog and kennel fund, despite a greater license sale and for a time it was thought an additional boost in tag fees might be necessary.

Licenses will be as follows: males, $1.25; females, $3.75; spayed females, $1.25; kennel licenses, $12.50. Sheep claims approved for 1937 totaled $3,944.40, including 17 claims for the last three months, amounting to $482.65. A balance of only $265.59 remained in the county's dog and kennel fund as of December 1, and fourth quarterly 1937 sheep claims will be paid largely out of anticipated receipts from early license sales for 1938.

Undulant Fever In Greene County

Undulant Fever is becoming rather a serious matter in Greene County. We have already had 2 cases this year with a probability that some cases have been overlooked.

Undulant Fever is transmitted through raw milk. There are two methods by which this disease can be contracted.

1. Pasteurization of all milk supplies.

2. Bang Testing of all cattle.

Undulant Fever is only one of a number of diseases communicated through raw milk. The following diseases may also be contracted in the same manner: Scarlet Fever, Septicemia, Typhoid, Diphtheria, Typhoid, Tuberculosis and possibly Polio.

Pasteurized milk is the safest milk. Dr. Gordon E. Savage, Co. Health Commissioner.

Harry B. Dine Gets First Degree With Verdict

A Clark county jury Wednesday rendered a verdict of first degree murder for Harry Dine, 64, with a recommendation for mercy. He had been charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff Edward F. Furry. The state demanded the death penalty on the ground that Dine was the brains of a gang which plotted the kidnap robbery of a Springfield cafe owner.

Henry, a son of Harry, has been sentenced to death for his part of the slaying while Harry Chapman is yet to face trial.

All three have prior records, Chapman and Harry Dine being out of prison on parole.

Both the "Dine" boys are known here, Harry being connected with the bootlegging business back in prohibition days.

Farm Quotas In Sale Wheat-Corn

After days of argument and speech-making, New Deal leaders in the Senate agreed Tuesday to fix a limit on the amount of corn and wheat each farm in the nation can market under the marketing quotas as demanded by Roosevelt and Wallace in the "ever normal granary" bill.

With the compulsory feature and fixed amounts of wheat and corn that can be sold from each farm, the American Farm Bureau Federation, through President O'Neal, who has swallowed the entire New Deal program thus far, announces his opposition to the Roosevelt-Wallace plan.

The entire program is the most outstanding Communistic proposition yet suggested by the New Deal.

WISDOM OF DONAHEY

Vic Donahey, junior U. S. senator from Ohio, always has been noted for straight-forward utterances which carried with them the notion that he honestly believed what he said, wanted others to believe it and had come to definite conclusions on the subject. He will vote against the farm control bill, makes no bones about his position and somewhat tersely explains his attitude. It may be remarked here, too, that Senator Donahey knows farmers, Ohio farmers, at least.

Among other things he finds faulty in the bill is that he doesn't understand it and has found nobody else who does. That, if a man has studied any measure, is sufficient reason to vote against it. No more urging on the part of any administration should be sufficient to influence votes for a bill from those who have doubts about it.

In the present instance, the bill which Donahey will not support certainly is a complicated one, agreed by all to be sufficiently thrashed with "difficult and perhaps double-meaning" to make for real suspicion.

But, further, Mr. Donahey represents the Ohio constituency and he has found no great demand on the part of Buckeye farmers for federal bureaucratic control. He finds, as many others have found, that the act is mandatory and not optional. That, it may truthfully be said, is one of the serious objections to the bill.

Vic is not against farm aid and relief. He favors, he says, laws that will assist agriculture in financing, sales of products and purchase of supplies. Tariffs, rate discriminations and similar considerations are within the Donahey notion, subjects of consideration. He attacks vigorously the unwholesome scheme of creating a forced scarcity to raise prices.

TWO THINGS WE WANT TO SEE IN FORCE

With the Roosevelt-Lewis labor combination holding the lines on Congress without much of a break we were interested Tuesday in reading a dispatch from Washington saying that both John L. Lewis of the CIO and Wm. Green of the AFL will demand changes next session in the social security law. Four major amendments will be asked.

One to extend the old-age pension and unemployment insurance provisions to cover all workers, in the home as domestics, marine and all classes of farm labor, and the elimination of the minimum employees for small shops and business.

That all states be required to give unemployment insurance benefits to workers engaged in "legitimate" strikes.

That old-age pensions be fixed at $30 a month for everyone who has paid taxes for five years.

That all employees be free from any tax or contribution as now required for unemployment insurance funds.

The Social Security Board estimates the cost of this program at only forty seven billion dollars a year, just a mere trifle.

We endorse all this program with the fixed-hour and wage bill and also the compulsory feature of the proposed farm act.

A New Dealer has suggested that people should quit "hally-aching" about the New Deal and we go a step further and urge the whole program that those opposed as well as those who have been supporting the Communist program get a "hally-fall." With this program hitting every American citizen, farm and home owner, we may get some reaction, a thing that has not been possible so far.

A CHRISTMAS WARNING

Believing that a warning about the hazards of fires at this season may save life and property, the National Board of Fire Underwriters has published a new eight-page leaflet entitled, "Keep Your Fires Friendly at Christmas Time."

The leaflet's cover displays a blazing Christmas tree. Inside a sketch pictures Santa Claus with beard and clothing afire. Additional sketches illustrate the hazards of nitro-cellulose film in home movie projectors, inflammable decorations, and flimsy costumes.

A fatal fire resulting from the careless act of a smoker near a Christmas tree is described, and each special holiday hazard is considered in turn. Included are fire dangers in homes, stores and public halls.

Fire control during the holidays, or any other season, is a simple matter—if you have the proper knowledge at your command. The National Board is performing a real public service in publishing these leaflets, which will go a long way toward assuring a really Merry Christmas—by keeping fire where it should be, in the furnace and under the turkey.

A "Social Democrat" is a cross between a radical Socialist and a Russian Communist.

A Xenia business man remarked several days ago that "Cedarville is the best lighted small town in the county, or any place in this section." That is right and the village is proud of it. Moreover we have our own water system and sanitary sewerage system, all of which is being paid for by the taxpayers and property owners. When this program was put into effect Santa Claus, of the Jim Farley breed, had not been born. Moreover, the village has never defaulted on any of its bonds, and the Communistic government in Washington does not have one cent charge against the village, school district or township. We have felt the pinch in many ways during the past five years. That good old Scotch-Irish blood that courses the veins of the present generation keeps the head erect, the conscience clear with no necessity of kneeling to a pagan god in Washington begging for a hand-out or pleading mercy at the hands of the government bill collector. All of which is more important than even well-lighted streets.

Attorney General Duffey has ruled that county auditors in the state cannot appoint deputy clerks to issue dog tags in the various townships for the convenience of dog owners as has been done in the past for many years. This will be a disappointment to hundreds of dog owners who must make a trip to the county seat to get the dog tag. The ruling may be in accordance to law but it does not matter about the taxpayer's convenience. As real estate taxes will not be collected this year until late in February or early in March it will mean two trips for axes, and possibly a third to get the new certificate on your automobile before it is time for the new license in April. Take your pocketbook with you for all these require more taxes than in former years, other than for dog tags which will remain the same as last year.

But these little contributions which must come from your pocketbook will be augmented by another for the hunting license if you engage in that sport. The Democratic legislature following out the New Deal idea of regimentation passed a law that each hunter must have a tag on his back much like the automobile tag at all times while hunting. The hunter must put up a $1 plus 25c fee. The numbers on the tag to be worn on the back can be read one half mile with field glasses. But this is not all, a Democratic member of the legislature just last week suggested that all cats are the enemy of birds that roost in trees at night. Yes, cats should have license tags for it all is a part of the "more abundant life."

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, Zion City, Ill., is having his trouble with commercial motion pictures and bowling. He regards both the work of the devil. A vote was taken recently among the residents and both motion pictures and bowling were defeated by a two to one vote. At the same election the voters authorized a censorship board in case picture supporters would win the election.

Anybody want a government apartment house that will accommodate five or six hundred people? The slum clearance venture in Cleveland is said to be a costly step. The slummers were not looking for electric lights, bath tubs but a place for the dog, cats, a duck or a goat. So they located nearer the lake. Rents were to be $8 a month per room plus water, gas and electric lights. Old age pensions and relief would hardly meet such a standard. Those who could pay $8 a month per room do not care to reside in that section of the city. The New Deal wants the city to take over the property, being unable to collect rents from most of the present tenants. That's what you call business—of the crack-pot variety.

Joe Kennedy, chairman of the Federal Commission, that has proved one of the big New Deal jokes, is an 100 per cent New Dealer. Speaking before a group after anti-New Deal speeches had been made by Senators Glass and Byrd, D., Virginia, Kennedy had the following to say, which reads good: "It isn't going to do any good to bellyache or say Roosevelt is no good or that everybody in Washington is crazy. Whether you like it or not he (the President) is going to be there three more years." Sen. Glass "I am totally in disagreement with nearly everything that has been done, (by the administration) and nearly everything proposed to be done." Both Glass and Byrd are old-fashioned, neither can stand the "Harvard A." or do the Mammy dance that made Chicago famous.

Organizations that have been demanding taxes on federal bonds received a black-eye some days ago when the U. S. Supreme Court held the income could not be taxed. State and federal employees feel good over a decision at the same time that holds

Capone's Address

Lovely red-headed Ann Sheridan and handsome John Lital are the lovers caught in a web of circumstantial evidence in the tense thriller motion picture, "Alcatraz Island" which opens Sunday, the 17th of December, at the new deluxe Xenia theater in Xenia, where it will play through Wednesday.

"Alcatraz Island" is a smashing drama aimed at the exposition of the inner workings of America's most formidable penitentiary and the dread in which it is held by the underworld. The story is concerned with a dangerous racketeer who is finally convicted on an income tax evasion charge by a young crusading district attorney, played by Gordon Oliver.

Jane and Her Dummy

Jane Withers, little madcap of the screen, starts throwing voices and things around with the aid of the dummy of the Hartmans' famous ventriloquist and satirical dancer, who appear with Jane in "45 Fathers," the merry comedy opening Thursday, December 16, at the Regent theater in Springfield for a six day engagement.

In this, Ginger Jane's latest comedy, forty-five members of an exclusive Fifth Avenue club find that they have dynamite on their hands when they adopt Jane. Building steadily and hilariously to the climax, in which a heartstirring trial is in progress, the picture becomes a carnival of laughter as Jane and the Hartmans expose an obnoxious society scheme with ventriloquistic hi-links.

Louise Henry, Thomas Beck, Nella Walker and George Givot head the brilliant supporting cast. Included on the same program in the comedy entitled "A Tip For Cinderella," the Looney Tune "Porkie's Double Trouble" and Fox news.

If dairy farmers, by some Yuletide magic

... could look into millions of city homes on Christmas ... they would be gratified, as we are, to see the large part dairy products play in the holiday festivities as city families sit down to their Christmas dinners in a spirit of Christmas friendliness.

In that same spirit—to our patrons, to all other dairymen, and to everyone engaged in the nation's great dairy industry—

Temperance Notes

Sponsored by Cedarville W. C. T. U.
Kentucky, one of the largest whiskey producing states in the nation, is now more than one-third dry by local option elections.

Herbert F. Lacey, president of the Lacey Brewing Co., recently said in the Brewers' Journal:
It is only necessary to look back to the general expectancy a few years ago to understand the sudden reversal from the almost unanimously favorable sentiment then existing toward beer and the brewing industry, to the present growing apprehension and opposition to the conditions under which so much of it is sold. When the prohibition amendment was repealed, the citizens of this country did not want a repetition of the old days nor did they expect beer to keep the company it has today.

A famous character in history said, "If we can set the nation thinking there would be no stopping it." If we could set the nation or the world thinking on the subject of alcohol—the temperance question, there would be no stopping it either, until something definite and permanent was done to bring about the abolition of the entire legalized liquor traffic, but the problem is how to contact the adult mind of the world to set it thinking—Graciano Houder.

"We have to admit in shame that the Christian women of this land were largely responsible for the loss of Prohibition. While few of them actually voted for repeal, many did not vote at all in that crisis."—Mrs. R. A. Hutchinson.

Petitions are being circulated by the dry forces in Arizona asking for outright prohibition by an amendment to the state constitution.

NEW CORN

The good days of dollar corn are gone, but with yields per acre twice as great as last year and a good part of the new corn made up of water which will dry out later and not count for corn weight, the present price will bring in as many dollars per acre. Our grain driver has been operating day and night for some time weeks. We are prepared to take in new corn in any quantity.

FLOCK OWNERS—Be careful in feeding new corn to laying flocks whether hen or pullets—it might easily upset them right in the present good egg season—use kiln dried corn either cracked or ground in mash feed and take no chances. WAYNE Supplement and K. D. Corn can't be beat.

Check up on your milk production. Cows coming in from good pasture need WAYNE Dairy Feed to keep up production.

Lesson for December 19

THE BIRTH OF JESUS

LESSON TEXT—Luke 2:1-20.
GOLDEN TEXT—For unto you is born this day the Saviour of the world, which is Christ the Lord.—John 3:16.
PRIMARY OBJECT—To know Jesus came.
JUNIOR OBJECT—To know Jesus came.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The birth of our Lord Jesus Christ.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—God's Gift of a Saviour.

Few indeed are the stories that will bear retelling or the books that are worth re-reading. Rare is the song that we care to hear more than once. How significant then that we come to the observance of Christmas each year with hearts full of delight in the story of the birth of Jesus, eager again to hear the account from God's Word, and to listen with attentive souls for the sound of the angel's song in the Christmas music.

The birth of our Lord, as the incarnate Saviour of men is still front page, headline news, even in 1937. The glad tidings of his coming still color the thinking and living of a world that has gone far from him, that lives today in hatred and enmity, even while outwardly recalling the coming of the One who was to bring peace on earth. We have even gone so far that men feel that the way to promote peace is to use the sword. Until the Prince of Peace himself shall reign there may be no other way. But let us be certain at this Christmas time that the tender baby hand from the cradle of Bethlehem has placed in our hearts and lives, bringing us peace with God and good will toward men.

The first seven verses of our chapter relate the coming of Mary with Joseph to God's appointed place at his appointed time, for the entrance into this world of the Son of God as the "Word" that "was made flesh and dwelt among us" (John 1:14). Our lesson opens with the proclamation of the blessed good news to the shepherds in the field.

I. "Unto You Is Born . . . a Saviour" (vv. 8-14).

Christ was a great teacher, one whom the common people heard gladly, "for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes" (Mark 1:22). He was a leader among men, and lived a life which was an example beyond that of any man. But mark it well, this was not the central and essential purpose of his coming. He came as a Saviour. His mother was told before his birth that she should "call his name JESUS, for he shall save his people from their sins" (Matt. 1:21).

It is not enough to be among the countless thousands who superficially observe Christmas with greetings and gifts. We must with the shepherds go and present ourselves in personal devotion to him. If you have not met the Lord Jesus as your own personal Saviour do it now. And if you know him, make this a Christmas in which Christ is supreme.

II. "Let Us Now Go . . . and See" (vv. 15, 16).

Their fear changed to assurance by the words of the angel, the shepherds at once "go" and "see." Would that all those who heard today did likewise. The shepherds might well have found all manner of excuses for not going. They had sheep to care for, they were not prepared for a journey. No, the urge was upon them "and they came with haste . . . and found" Jesus.

III. "When They Had Seen . . . They Made Known" (vv. 17-20). Mary the mother of Jesus had special reason to ponder these things in her heart. But the shepherds "returned, glorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen."

Let the redeemed of the Lord say so" (Ps. 107:2). When we have found the Lord Jesus we must not simply rejoice in the satisfaction and peace that has come to our own souls. We are saved to serve. The normal expression of the new life in Christ is the proclamation of the gospel to the ends of the earth. Only in that spirit do we truly keep Christmas.

To every one that sees these lines—whether editor, typesetter, or proofreader—whether a reader in the midst of the clamor of the great city or in the quiet of a distant countryside, whether old or young, whether well or on a sickbed, whether alone, far from family and friends, or in the bosom of your family, the writer of these lines extends in the name of Christ a most hearty good wish for a blessed Christmas.

Lesson of Experience

Experience teacheth many things, and all men are his scholars; yet he is a strange teacher, using that which he himself hath taught.

Home Culture Club Enjoys Christmas Party

Members of the Home Culture Club, husbands and guests, enjoyed the annual Christmas banquet at the Knott Home, near Pitsch, Monday evening.

Nineteen members and guests were served a three course dinner at two long tables, decorated with sprigs of holly and pine with pot baskets tied with bright red callophane bows at each cover. Spd tapers in a seven-branch candelabra formed the centerpiece on one table and the other table was lighted with red tapers in crystal holders.

Following dinner the group sang Christmas carols and Mrs. A. E. Richards reviewed the Christmas story, "Why the Chimes Rang." Exchange of Christmas gifts was a delightful feature.

The committee in charge of arrangements was composed of Mrs. Florence Reynolds, Mrs. John Ault, Mrs. Cora Trumbo, Mrs. Gertrude Stormont and Mrs. Carl Ross.

Those present were Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Adams, Mrs. C. W. Steele, Mrs. C. E. Masters, Mr. and Mrs. John Ault, Mrs. Florence Reynolds, Mrs. Paul Orr, Mrs. George Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Townsley, Mr. and W. C. Hill, Mrs. B. H. Little and Mrs. Cora Trumbo.

Bridge-Luncheon Was

Charming Social Event

One of the most charming and pleasing social events of the Christmas season was last Thursday when Miss Ina Murdock and Mrs. Anell Wright entertained at a bridge-luncheon, some fifty guests being present.

The Murdock home on S. Main street, where many social events in years past have marked the season, was never more attractive than on Thursday afternoon.

In keeping with the season gleaming red tapers, ropes of green pine and silver Christmas bells were combined to create a pretty setting. Ropes of pine were entwined on the staircase railing and boughs of pine intermingled with red tapers were placed on the mantels over three fireplaces. Three silver bells extending from a pine wreath were placed at the door where the guests entered. A two-course luncheon was served at one o'clock in which Christmas appointments were employed. Following luncheon guests made up nine tables of bridge and three for ruck.

Prizes for bridge were awarded Mrs. Harry Hammon and Mrs. Raymond Williamson and Mr. Raymond Bull and Mrs. Florence Reynolds were prize winners in the ruck games. Guests were present from Dayton, Xenia, Jamestown and Cedarville. The Xenia guests included Mrs. H. C.
